

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, May 6

1999

Hearing conservation training to be held May 11, 18

Mandatory hearing conservation training is scheduled for May 11 and 18 in Bldg. 4200, Morris Auditorium. Three sessions will be offered each of the two days: 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Marshall employees and on-site contractors working in areas which may expose them to excessive noise levels, those who require the use of hearing protection and those who receive a mandatory hearing exam at the Medical Center are required to attend. For more information, call Environmental Health at 544-2390.

Blue Cross/Blue Shield rep here 9-11 a.m. May 12 in Bldg. 4200, room 324

Safety shoe van here 8 a.m.-2 p.m. May 12, southwest end of Bldg. 4471

Marshall participating in depression screening project

Marshall is participating in the National Depression Screening Project. The Center's psychologist, Dr. Bruce Mather, is available by appointment to counsel Marshall civil service employees and their family members concerning feelings of sadness, stress, depression, etc. To make an appointment, call 544-7549.

In this week's Marshall Star:

- Center director discusses goals of reorganization
- Marshall video stabilization technology to aid law enforcement

NARFE, 9:30 a.m. Sat., Senior Center on Drake Avenue. Call 837-0382, 881-3168